

The Township of Enniskillen Municipal Office will be opening to the public on Monday June 22, 2020. Although the doors will be open it will not be business as usual until it is safe to do so. We are attempting to resume business in the safest manner possible.

Visitors will be permitted into the front lobby. When entering the Municipal Office main doors please be aware that only one person will be permitted in the lobby at a time. We ask that you use the hand sanitizer provided upon entry. A new counter and plexi-glass have been installed that will allow items to be dropped off or picked up, payments to be made as well as discuss concerns with staff. Masks will not be mandatory.

No public access to washrooms will be available.

If you have any of the following symptoms of COVID-19:
